

Today at assembly, I will talk to the students about what Reconciliation Week means and how the theme 'Walk Together with Courage' fits well with what good friends do for each other.

Sport Update:

Soccer-The boys soccer team played against Ul-ladulla last week, defeating them in extra time (2 goals all) on corners 5-2. We now play Vincentia PS in round 4. Well done boys.

The rugby league team plays against Batemans Bay PS on a date to be determined.

The boys softball team played Friday and while they lost 17-8 they played very well and enjoyed the day. The girls softball team will play at a date to be decided.

Mufti Day fun - Well done to all those who dressed up and supported the fundraiser for the Children's Hospital in Canberra, last Friday. We raised $264.60 for this great cause—well done to our SRC for this initiative.

Staff Leave - Mrs Brennan is still on leave this week.

SPORT-A-THON - a few facts for you.

WHAT CAN YOU DO? Ask as many sponsors as you can to help fundraise for our SPORT-A-THON. Sponsorship forms were sent home last week - see the front office if you need another one.

PEER SUPPORT

This week in Peer Support we are focusing on friendship skills. Students will be learning about the importance of cooperating with and listening to others. They will think about how our actions affect others and identify qualities in our friends.

MUFTI DAY FUN.....

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING IN THE CLASSROOMS...

This Term, Quolls and 2/3S have been learning to play tennis. After a short walk to the courts we do 10 minutes of stretches to help loosen our limbs before heading onto the court. We start each session with exercises aimed at improving our hand-eye coordination. This includes bouncing a tennis ball on top of our rackets and on the ground. We then proceed to practise hitting a ball over the net and other necessary movement skills required for tennis.

Lachlan and Daniel really enjoy the stretching, Leo and Willo are showing great improvement with their hand-eye coordination and Max and Tristan enjoy hitting the ball over the net.

BILLIONAIRE BOY REPORT

Last Friday some stage 2 and 3 went to Canberra Theatre to see a play based on a book called Billionaire Boy.

The trip took 2 1/2 hours to get there but to us it felt like foreverrrrrrrrr.

We stopped at Braidwood for a fruit break then we hopped back into the bus.

When we arrived we went into the theatre and ate our lunch in the lobby.

After a few minutes they let us into the new space in the Theatre.

Throughout the play most of us laughed when Joe (the Billionaire Boy) and Bob (Joe's friend) got tipped in the bin.

Near the end of the play Raj (the newsagent) sang a song called 'Raj's Purple Butt Pain' which went something like this—

"I've got purple pain, purple pain, I've got Purple Butt pain!"

When we got back to school we said to each other 'that was a good play'.

By—Brooke, Ewan and Isabella.
